Lloyd George Will Suggest Limitation of Land Armaments

PROPOSITION WILL BE PUT POWERS FOR "ARMY HOLIDAY" SIMILAR TO THAT OF DISARMAMENT AGREEMENT

(By Associated Press)
GENOA, April 12.—Lloyd George is expected to propose at the earliest opportunity, probably tomorrow, a "sitting commission No. 1, of the economic conference past, or understanding, that no nation shall attack another, thus abolishing the possibility of war for the duration of the pact," Reuther's correspondent says he has learned.

(By Associated Press)
GENOA, April 12.—Premier Lloyd George contemplates suggesting an agreement for the limitation of land armaments in Europe for a definite period, according to an unverified report, before adjournment of the present international economic conference, and the "army holiday" it is thought, will be patterned after the naval holiday completed at the recent Washington conference.

Disarmament continues to be the most discussed question among the delegates here, although it is barred from formal consideration following the initial tilt between the French and Russian delegations, when M. Chichester, Soviet foreign minister, endeavored to bring it before the conference. Asked if France would be disposed to discuss disarmament at some later conference, M. Barthou, head of the French delegation, replied "if I wanted to say an easy and pleasant thing, my answer would be yes, and yet, my real answer for France is 'we don't know.'"

(By Associated Press)
GENOA, April 12.—Conditions in the Saar valley, control of which was awarded to France by the treaty of Versailles, are to be called to the attention of the economic conference by a delegation composed of prominent financial and other residents of the Saar, says the newspaper Cattadino. French occupation and deputation. It will declare, has caused a grave situation. Also they will present "numerous formidable accusations against the French troops."

WOULD CHANGE WAGE SCALE OF WOMEN WORKERS

Federated Trades Council Will Initiate Movement to Abolish Welfare Commission.

(By Associated Press)
SACRAMENTO, April 12.—The committee was appointed by the Sacramento federated trades council last night to launch a movement to initiate a measure for the November election, modifying the minimum wage law in California and abolishing the industrial welfare commission. This action followed the receipt of a notice that the board had reduced women's weekly wage minimum from $16 to $15.

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Women employed in mercantile establishments, offices, hotels and laundries will not be affected by the industrial welfare commission order reducing the minimum wage for women. Employers in those lines made no formal request for a reduction, which affects only women in the fruit, vegetable canning, packing fish canning, general manufacturing and unclassified occupations.

NO USE ANYWAY AS REPUBLICANS WILL CARRY DAY

Jefferson Day Banquet Postponed as No Speakers Could be Secured.

Owing to the inability of the program committee to "make connections" in the matter of speakers, the annual Jefferson Day banquet of the Nevada democrats, which was to have been held under the auspices of the Associated Democratic Clubs, April 13, has been indefinitely postponed. It was announced today by R. P. Dunlap, executive secretary of the clubs.

The committee sent an invitation to William G. McAdoo, formerly secretary to the treasury and director general of the railroads during the war and when Mr. McAdoo was forced to decline owing to the press of business in southern California, where recently established his home, Cordell Hull, chairman of the national democratic committee, who will be in Salt Lake City this week, was urged to attend, but Mr. Hull's itinerary would not permit him to make the trip to Reno.

(By Associated Press)
CORNING, N. Y., April 12.—Complete returns for the 37th congressional district gave Lewis Henry, republican, a plurality of 3087 over Judge Frank Irvine, democrat, in yesterday's special election. Prohibition was the dominant issue in the campaign, Irvine declaring for a repeal of the Volstead act and substitution of a measure which would legalize the sale of beer and wine. Henry stood for prohibition.

AVERILL HOLDS STATUTE 1913 WHOLLY VOID

Vukovich Not Permitted Have Jury Trial in Proceedings Contempt of Court.

In the district court this morning Judge Averill held that the statute of 1913, wherein a defendant is entitled to a jury trial in contempt proceedings, and that the judge is ruling the citation can be disqualified upon affidavit of the defendant unless said contempt is committed in the presence of the court, is unconstitutional.

The decision was rendered in the contempt proceedings directed against John Vukovich, who is alleged to have opened a safe in his place of business after it had been sealed following a search of the premises by Roy Gillon, a state detective.

Attorney for defendant thereupon filed a demurrer attacking the sufficiency of the affidavit made by Gillon, and arguments will be heard on the same on April 22.

DEATH CLAIMS WIFE FORMER MINING MAN

Husband Was Elected First President of the Tonopah Mining Company Here.

W. W. Booth received a message yesterday afternoon informing him of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, wife of John F. Anderson, which occurred in Philadelphia at the family home that morning. Mrs. Anderson was about 76 years of age and visited southern Nevada during the early days of Tonopah. Mr. Anderson and a Mr. Woodside were the purchasers of the original Tonopah Mining company's property from J. L. Butler and associates, and he served as the first president of that company.

Mrs. Anderson came of old Puritan stock and was married to Mr. Anderson about 50 years ago and one child, John Anderson, arrived to bless the union, who, with the husband and father, survive her untimely loss. She was noted for her many acts of charity and philanthropy, not only in Philadelphia, but in every community where she had resided or was acquainted and a multitude of people will mourn with the husband and son in their hour of sorrow. Mrs. Anderson was possessed of a lovable character. She was a loving wife and mother, a sincere friend and a true Christian and counted her friends by the number of her acquaintances.

DEATH VALLEY ROUTE SHOULD HAVE SUPPORT

The Death Valley route to Los Angeles by way of Beatty, covering the distance from Tonopah in 394 miles, should warrant the support of all winter motorists. It is what might be termed a one-day route and permits of a side trip to Carrara, where is located Nevada's biggest infant industry, the marble quarries.

The business and mining interests of Nye and Esmeralda counties should get behind the movement and strive to bring about the repair of the road out of Beatty, covering a distance of about 15 miles, which must be surfaced. The people in that neighborhood have raised about $600 toward these road improvements, but about $900 additional is needed and it is up to the people of Tonopah and Goldfield to get behind the proposition. The route to be traveled is by way of Trona and Ince canyon and is the ideal one for winter travel.
